

What Happens When Something Goes Wrong? Dealing with public health issues that come with hydraulic fracturing

Link to Resource

<http://sites.environment.yale.edu/collaborative/wp-content/uploads/sites/9/2016/06/Economic-Impacts-Cardi-.pdf>

Communities Affected by Impact

Sublette County, Wyoming; Midland, TX; Williams County, McKenzie County, ND

Publication

Economic Consequences of Marcellus Shale Gas Extraction: Key Issues (Cornell University Department of City and Regional Planning, CARDI Reports)

Type of Resource

Non-peer-reviewed

Full Citation

County health departments lack capacity: "What Happens When Something Goes Wrong? Dealing with public health issues that come with hydraulic fracturing," in "Economic Consequences of Marcellus Shale Gas Extraction: Key Issues," Cornell University Department of City and Regional Planning, CARDI Reports (Sept 2011) at http://www.greenchoices.cornell.edu/downloads/development/shale/Economic_Consequences.pdf