

Sandoval County, NM v. Tesoro Property, LLC, et al.
D-1329-CV-2009-02409

TIMELINE

- 6/12/06 Recorp files with the NM State Engineer's Office a Notice of Intention to Drill exploratory wells on their property (11,673 acres). (Exhibit A)
- Fall 2006 Recorp determines likelihood of water on land and prepared drilling plan with geologists.
- 4/19/07 Recorp and Sandoval County enter into a Memorandum of Understanding to "jointly set up a water entity". (Exh. C)
- 5/17/07 Recorp (Carinos) grants a Temporary Well Easement to Sandoval County.
- 7/13/07 Recorp and Sandoval County enter into a Development Agreement. (Exh. E)
- 1/9/08 Recorp files a Notice of Intention to Appropriate Nonpotable Groundwater
- 10/16/08 Aquifer test update by INTERA to Sandoval County Water Administrator suggests a huge reservoir of water
- 4/6/09 Sandoval County Manager Vigil requests by letter that David Maniatis (Recorp.) transfer 42 acres containing well sites and roadways to County
- 6/29/09 Sandoval County Manager Vigil requests David Maniatis (Recorp) grant well easement extension "in pursuit of our common goals in this joint venture partnership."
- 10/6/09 Sandoval County offers Recorp $237,885 for 47+ acres of land containing well sites and future desalinization plant site.
- 10/8/09 Sandoval County files this Petition for Condemnation and obtains, ex parte, a Preliminary Order of Entry

